Arabic Letters With Sukkoon

Sukkoon is a small sign above a letter which looks like an extended comma, but it can also be written as a circle:

When we get to a letter that carries a sukkoon we pause on that letter, example is like when we say in English 'Lent', the T and N have a sukkoon basically, no vowels, we just pause on the sound of T and N.

Let's see how the letters with sukkoon are written:
